CONDENSED STORIES.

Why a Speaker's Statement Elicited No Response.

C. W. Waterman, a Denver lawyer, told a story the other day of an experience he and a friend had in a sleeping car going west. They were in the smoking compartment with two or three others, and a general conversation started. The talk turned on Senator Tillman of South Carolina, because it was the night he was billed to talk in Chicago. One of the men turned to the friend of Waterman and asked, "What do you think of Tillman anyway?"

"I think," said the man to whom the question was addressed, "that

"HE IS NOT A SHAM AND IMITATION."

Tillman is a courageous man, a statesman of principle and honor. He may be a trifle rough, but he is on the level. He is a genuine reformer and not a sham and imitation like Joe Folk of Missouri and Ben Lindsay of Denver, who is running as an independent candidate for governor of Colorado."

There was no response to this statement, and the talk drifted to other things. An hour or so afterward the train drew into Jefferson City, and one of the men who had been in the smoking room got off.

"Do you know who that was?" a man who had been saying nothing asked of the eulogist of Tillman.

"I do not."

"Well, that was Governor Folk."—New York World.

Obeys Physician's Orders.

Captain George H. Knox, the richest officer in the United States army, is an advocate of temperance, according to the Louisville Courier-Journal. At Fort McIntosh in a talk with some privates he said recently:

"Of course if men want to drink they can always find some excuse for drinking.

"I once knew a New York man who drank entirely too much. His doctor, in order to moderate his tippling, ordered him to take more light beer and less strong wine—to every quart of beer not more than a pint of wine at the outside.

"The patient said to me one evening a week afterward as he rang for a bottle of champagne:

"'What a bore! I've drunk eight glasses of beer today, and now I've got to get away with four glasses of wine. Doctor's orders.'"

Paved With Good Intentions.

A diplomat was talking in Washington about the late Hon. Auberon Herbert, son of the Earl of Carnarvon.

"Mr. Herbert was always original. I once heard him address a New Year banquet of clergymen.

"Meeting this morning the gentleman called Mephisto or Beelzebub, I greeted him politely and said:

"'How are things down your way?'

"He grimaced and shook his head. He pointed to the mud on his hoof and tail.

"'We are in a deuce of a mess down there,' he said. 'This is the season, you know, when our pavements are being laid.'"

The Actor's Son.

A dramatic critic the other night said in New York that he got off a good joke at H. B. Irving's expense.

"I met Mr. Irving," he began, "just after a performance of 'The Bells.' Mr. Irving asked me how I liked him.

"'You were immense,' said I. 'In one scene you were quite the equal of your great father.'

"'What scene was that?' he asked.

"'The scene,' said I, 'just before Matthias tells his horrible dream.'

"Mr. Irving frowned.

"'But,' he said, 'I wasn't on the stage then.'

"'Neither,' said I, 'was your father.'"—Washington Star

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Orange Baskets and How to Make Them—Various Helpful Hints.

To make orange baskets stand the oranges blossom end uppermost and cut out from each upper half two right angled pieces in such a way as to leave the lower half intact and a strip of skin over the top to form a handle. Remove all pulp and juice and with a sharp knife scallop out the top of the rind.

Press and strain the juice, and for each pint take a half package of gelatin and a half cup of cold water. When soaked add a half pint of boiling water and, when dissolved, the juice of one lemon, one cupful of sugar and the orange juice.

Strain and when cold and firm cut into cubes and heap these in the orange baskets. For an extra touch divide the strained jelly, coloring half pale pink. Chill separately and mix the two colors in the baskets.

Ironing Linen.

Iron the linen before it is dry, and iron it then until it is perfectly dry. This insures perfect work.

Have the iron hot. A lukewarm iron will not do. Fold the cloth lengthwise, if at all, for the pressing. Press hard and iron smoothly until the linen is dry. Unless it is perfectly dry it will not have the luster and brilliance that all well ironed linen has. Fold the cloth lengthwise until it is narrow enough to suit the taste, and then crosswise folding is allowable. Avoid starch in linen as you would upon silk. It is entirely out of place.

Cuts and Burns.

Apply flour or rice flour to a cut that will not stop bleeding. Either will be found effective. A burn will be relieved if either soft soap or common baking soda be applied at once. As much baking soda as will cover a ten cent piece taken in a quarter of a glass of hot water will relieve indigestion. For a scald try dry flour. The heat from the burn will moisten the flour, and if it is left on it will heal without a scar.

Washing Doughnuts.

When frying doughnuts have a kettle of boiling water near the doughnut kettle, and as you take out each one on your fork plunge it into the boiling water—which must be boiling all the time—as quickly as possible. Let this water stand until cold, and you will be surprised at the amount of grease that will rise on top. Doughnuts done in this way will never be indigestible.

For the Scalp.

A good scalp cleanser, to be rubbed occasionally on the head, is made from one ounce of lanolin, half a dram of carbolic acid, four ounces of witch hazel and the same amount of almond oil. Melt the lanolin and almond oil together and then, while it is still warm, pour it into the witch hazel, adding the carbolic acid when the mixture is nearly cool.

To Wash Silk Handkerchiefs.

A silk handkerchief should never be boiled or have soap rubbed directly upon it if you wish to keep it white. Make a lather of finely shredded white soap and hot water, wash the handkerchief in this and rinse in cold water to remove all soap. Wring and dry quickly in the sun or by the fire, ironing while still damp, but not wet.

Parsnip Stew.

Cut three slices of salt pork into small dice and fry crisp; add four parsnips scraped clean and cut in quarters lengthwise or into thick slices and an equal quantity of sliced potatoes. Cover with boiling water and cook until tender. Season with salt and a little white pepper and serve very hot for luncheon.

Cleaning With Gasoline.

Tailors clean suits without ripping them by placing them on ironing boards with the skirt thrown over the board as for ironing. A bowl of gasoline is used and a hairbrush. Brush downward, following the straight of the goods, dipping the brush often. Work quickly to dampen, but not wet the material.

Face Powder.

The following is said to be an excellent powder for the face: Four ounces of rice powder, four ounces of talcum powder, one ounce of zinc oxide, one-half ounce of carbonate of magnesia and two grains of carmine. You can reduce or increase the amount of carmine according to the tint desired.

For the Shoes.

Milk, if applied once a week with a soft cloth to boots and shoes, preserves them wonderfully and makes them wear longer than if treated only in the ordinary way.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Mr. Pennib and His Dream of a Raise In Salary.

"Mr. Richly," began Pennib, the bookkeeper, as he entered his employer's office, "I have called to see why my salary has not been increased this year."

"Why—why, hasn't it, my boy?" nervously asked the head of the firm.

"No, sir, it has not," firmly replied Pennib. "I have been with you now for some years, and I think you will admit that it would be a difficult matter to fill my place."

"D-don't leave us, my dear boy!"

"Well, that of course depends entirely upon yourself. I don't want to put the firm out of business when it is doing so well, but I must consider myself, you know."

"That is very true, Mr. Pennib, and we also must consider you. Let me see, your salary is $14 per week, is it not?"

"Yes, sir; only $14 per week."

"Gracious, what an oversight! Why, you are worth $50, and your salary shall at once be increased to that amount, and"—

But just here Pennib's alarm clock went off, and a few hours later, when he tremblingly entered Mr. Richly's office to ask for an increase of $1, he choked up so that he could only mumble a "good morning" and make a hasty exit.—Judge.

How to Correct a Wife's Timidity.

Don't let her give way to the absurd nervousness which affects so many women. Teach her not to be afraid. If she hears "some one in the house," keep close behind her, so that she may learn for herself there is no real cause for alarm. —Black and White.

Nothing Doing.

"I've worked for the party faithfully for the past twenty-four years," began the office seeker, "and I can say with truth that I never once asked for any office."

"Glorious record!" put in the party leader. "I wouldn't think of urging you to break it. Keep it up."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

What She Feared.

Mabel—So you are really engaged to old Gotrox, are you?

Stella—Yes.

Mabel—Well, he's all right in his way.

Stella—Y-yes, but I'm afraid he'll be always right in my way after our marriage.—Chicago News.

Diplomacy.

Tommy—May I have some nuts, mamma, please?

Mamma—Yes, dear; take a handful.

Tommy—Please, mamma, will you help me? Your hand's bigger than mine.—Pick-Me-Up.

Making It Popular.

"Rev. Dr. Skeem's church seems to be getting very fashionable."

"Yes; he charges $5 a seat. All the would be fashionables rush there every Sunday just to show they have the price."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Had Doubts.

Wright—Bob says he's had another story accepted. Do you think he writes good fiction?

Penman—No, he doesn't write good fiction; he talks it.—Yonkers Statesman.

Get Ready to Build.

Nuritch—Good morning! You deal in architecture, don't yer?

Architect—Well, yes. But—er—

Nuritch—Well, I want about a million dollars' worth of it. Got any samples to show?—Philadelphia Press.

Not What She Expected.

Mrs. Hoyle—I married for position.

Mrs. Doyle—Did you get it?

Mrs. Hoyle—Yes—as maid of all work.—New York Press.

Generally So.

Mrs. Benham—Do you really think that my mouth is too large?

Benham—That's an open question.—Brooklyn Life.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

A Curious Dancing Mouse That Lives In Far Japan.

We have all heard of singing mice, but out in Japan they have some that waltz. They are about the same size as the common kind, but are different in appearance, for they are speckled with black and white around the head and neck. It is said that they have a habit of whirling around for hours at a time, with only short stops, perhaps to get breath. And they whirl in couples, too, just as human beings do, but much more rapidly. They are not trained to do this. The habit is natural to the mice. It is said that the whirling mania seizes them nearly always when they are running, and even when they are trying to escape from an enemy. That is an unfortunate feature of the performance, for if they stop to take a waltz while the enemy is in hot pursuit they are pretty sure to be gobbled up.

A Coffee Cup Barometer.

If you wish to know what sort of weather the next six or eight hours will bring forth, you may determine the matter at your breakfast. Put the cream or milk into your cup of coffee and then drop two lumps of sugar into the middle of it. Now watch the bubbles that rise to the surface. If they make a sudden rush to the side of the cup, there is going to be a heavy rain; if they move slowly to the side, there will be a shower. Finally, if they remain in the middle, the day is sure to be fair. Young readers may readily find out for themselves by experiment whether this unique barometer may or may not be relied on.—Chicago News.

What to Name Your Dog.

There are certain English names for dogs that have meanings that might be given when appropriate. Alan means a hound; Ashur, black; Blanco, white, Crispin, curly; Duncan, brown; Julius, soft haired; Leonard, lionlike; Linus, flaxen haired; Rufus, red; Vivian, lively; Clara, bright; Constance, loyal; Joyce, sportive. Such names as Scud, Rover, Dart and Patter are suggestive in themselves. Two classic names suitable for dogs are Biteou and Lixus.

Little Jennie's Discovery.

When electric lights were introduced into the small town on Martha's Vineyard, where little Jennie lives, she went out walking one evening with her mother, says the New York Press. Suddenly coming out from under some trees, she saw the magic light for the first time in her life.

"Oh, mamma," she cried, fairly dancing with excitement—"mamma, look! See the moon! It's on a stick tonight!"

Hottentot.

The origin of this name for the natives of South Africa is peculiar. It is said that the early Dutch soldiers at the Cape of Good Hope particularly noticed the click that forms so distinct a feature of the Kaffir language, which sounded to them like a continuous repetition of the syllables "hot" and "tot." They therefore called the natives Hottentots, the "en" meaning "and" in the Dutch language.

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients — Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or billiousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, teachers and writers on Materia Medica who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompained with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

The Unique Position of Rudolph Spreckels.

San Francisco, whose exterior and beauty were so sadly shattered by nature's forces, is chaotic within, for its internal machinery is clogged with political rottenness, and but for the wheels of justice there would be no hope for the administrative structure whatever. As long, however, as justice is working its way out and the man of the political machine points out the filth and rust which he has encouraged to accumulate, there is promise of a great day of reckoning and internal cleansing. San Francisco's destiny, however, will depend altogether upon the coming to light of a leader. There is somewhere in that city the man who will seize the rudder of government and guide the municipal craft safely out of the rough waters which now seem about to dash it to destruction. Where is he? Who is he? Out of such crises have emerged men, heretofore unheard of. Even so will it be in San Francisco.

There are men in that city who have all the elements of a leader, perhaps many, but the call now is for a leader who will be acceptable to all factions. Rudolph Spreckels is not the man, for he lacks the personality of the leader and seeks no preferment, yet he is above reproach and is in a position to act according to his high-minded principles. No man can besmirch his reputation. Perhaps it was the discovery of how franchises were dealt in that precipitated him in the fight for civic cleanliness. The fact that he gave the prosecution social, moral and financial backing is sufficient endorsement of his public interest and makes him acceptable to the better element of San Francisco's citizens. He is in a position few men are. There are no strings by which he can be pulled off when once in the fight for decency. No one has anything on him. There is no club which can be held over his head. He was the strongest factor in bringing about the expose. He is a strong man in San Francisco to-day, for not only has he the substantial support of capital and business interests but also the present admiration of the workingmen who are at sword's points with Calhoun, and would therefore love his enemy. This is the unique position which Rudolph Spreckels now occupies in our metropolis.

Now that he has succeeded in opening up affairs and exposing the parasites who were feeding upon the vitals of the stricken city, who will reorganize the administration and adjust the differences of the warring factions?

San Francisco's Crisis

The most pointed and intelligent utterance of the San Francisco press on the present conditions of that city comes from the "Chronicle," which sets forth the true aspect of the crisis which, if not righted, will ruin the metropolis of the Pacific. Law and order must be supported by the peace-loving public. There must be some guarantee of the city's stability—some solid basis on which to rely and from which to work. Present prices are in many instances extortion. When contractors must pay a five and six dollar a day wage to workmen who were barbers or barkeepers before the earthquake, they have to get big prices from builders, for a house is a long time building with this kind of labor.

The determining factor in the fixing of wage values is very variable and mysterious when we come to examine, for instance, the envelope of the hodcarrier. Wages vary with the demand for various kinds, but the par value is determined principally by responsibility, skill, necessary length of apprenticeship, outlay, hardship, amount of brain force or intellect required. Which or how many of these factors determine the wage of the hodcarrier is a riddle. Which or how many urged by the carmen is another.

The hard-pressed necessity of San Francisco for rehabiliments gave opportunity to raise prices for everything, because of the urgent demand. Now that absolute necessities in this line are about satisfied people are beginning to rebel and will have no more than they have had to have. Outside capital, with a choice of many places for investment, prefers San Francisco but hesitate and turn away when it sees the destinies of that promising city carried in the mantels of inflammable organizations and irresponsible officials who do not hesitate to jeopardize the entire city's welfare for their own gainsaving. The crisis has been well illustrated and exemplified in the present outburst of trouble and none too soon. It has smouldered long enough. Now, that it has burst forth the danger is more plain and will be combatted with more intelligence and energy.

A man married his nurse because she saved his life. Now, to save his life he cannot see why he did.

Silk is going up and in order that our wives may rustle we poor men will also have to rustle.

And now trouble is brewing. Beer is apt to be raised to ten cents per glass.

Worthy Cause that Should Receive Encouragement.

The Childrens' Home Finding Society of Northern California has had a representative in our city this week looking after children that need homes, homes that desire children, and collecting funds for furthering the work. This is not an institution. The object is to place children in suitable homes, keep a supervision over them, see that they are sent to school and properly trained. Nearly 1,000 children have been placed by the this association. Mrs. J. E. Jones, a former resident of Sonoma, is District Superintendent of this section. F. T. Duhring has consented to act as local representative for the society, in order that any child needing a home, or home desiring one of the children can apply to him. The society has some 200 local representatives. A receiving home was given to the society in South Berkeley, at 1921 Russell street. Wells Fargo delivers packages free, not over 25 pounds in a package. Cash, food or clothing gratefully received. Help a child to find a home. Several good homes have been offered in this valley.

Childhood is the time to win,
And train the young for truthfulness,
Saving from a life of sin,
To a life of usefulness.

Fire Near Depot.

A small frame shack belonging to J. Mazza, adjoining the Depot saloon, on the north side of the railroad track, near the Northwestern Pacific depot, was burned to the ground last Thursday afternoon between five and six o'clock. The fire was confined to the one building by the efforts of the firemen and the trainmen of the afternoon freight of the Northwestern Pacific which happened to be sidetracked at the depot. The railroaders discovered the fire and were the first to arrive on the ground.

The cause of the fire is unknown but was probably caused by a defective flue. The loss was small, as the building was a very insignificant and cheap affair. The premises, which last year were used as a barber shop, have been occupied by a tramp, who had rented the place for a few weeks. When the fire was discovered the occupant was under the influence of liquor, and while trying to save his effects, slipped and fell. His face came in contact with a nail which was projecting from a board and a long gash was cut in his cheek and he was led away by Officer Ryan for repairs.

Jack London in Honolulu.

Jack London of Glen Ellen, who recently sailed out of the port of San Francisco on a seven years cruise in the Snark, a ketch rigged yacht, arrived in Honolulu Monday, 27 days out. The boat, during the voyage proved her seaworthiness, and the fear that London and his daring companions would eventually bring up in Davy Jones' locker has been somewhat dispelled.

High License for Petaluma.

The Board of Trustees of Petaluma has raised the saloon license in that city from $40 to $150 per quarter. The raise in the license is the outcome of the late municipal election held in that city.

HEALTH OF TOWN TO BE LOOKED AFTER.

Local Board of Health to Strictly Enforce the Sanitary Ordinance.

At a recent meeting of the local Board of Health it was decided to enforce the provisions of the city's health ordinance strictly to the letter. In order to do this there will be no discrimination and the Board ought to receive encouragement from all our citizens in this laudable and timely undertaking.

The necessity of this action to put the town in a sanitary condition before warm weather sets in is apparent to all who are familiar with the many health-menacing nuisances that are maintained in the town by thoughtless and careless people who are in need of an official reminder of their shortcomings in this respect. The disease-breeding open ditches and cesspools will receive the attention of our local health guardians at once and property-owners and tenants will be officially notified to abate all nuisances on their premises prejudicial to public health. If this is not done at once the Board will take the matter in hand and have the nuisance removed at the expense of the offending parties.

Sonoma's Health Board is composed of F. T. Duhring, T. J. McGimsey, Dr. A. M. Thomson, L. H. Green and F. Bulotti.

The Health Officer who will enforce the orders of the Board of Health is City Marshal James H. Albertson.

T. Duhring; song by the children, "Battle Hymn of the Republic;" invocation, Rev. R. L. M., Thursday, May 30th.

This is Worth Saving.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to relieve any form of rheumatism or backache, also cleanse and strengthen the Kidneys and Bladder, overcoming all urinary disorders, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease: Fluid Extract of Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bed time.

A well known authority states that these ingredients are mainly of vegetable extraction, and harmless to use, and can be obtained at small cost from any good prescription pharmacy. Those who think they have kidney trouble or suffer with lame back or weak bladder or rheumatism, should give this prescription a trial, as no harm can possibly follow its use, and it is said to do wonders for some people.

Departed Sister.

Sister M. Eugenius O'Brien died at the Presentation Convent on Tuesday. The deceased sister came to Sonoma from one of the city convents a short while ago with the hope that our salubrius climate might benefit her health. She did improve for a while, but a recent severe cold brought her to an early grave. The loss of Sister O'Brien is deeply regretted by the Sisterhood. All who knew her loved her for her amiable disposition, her bright talents and many attractive virtues. After the solemn requiem, celebrated by the Rev. J. Leahy in the convent chapel on Thursday, the remains was removed to St. Mary's cemetery, Oakland, for private interment in the Sister's plot.

FOUND DEAD ON FLOOR OF BEDROOM.

Heart Disease Claims Mrs. Jennie Clark, a Prominent Secret Society Woman.

Mrs. Jennie Clark, a prominent secret and benevolent society woman of San Francisco, and who is known from one end of Northern California to the other, is dead. The summons came very suddenly in this place last Sunday afternoon between four and five o'clock. Mrs. Clark had arrived in town on the morning of her death to spend the day with her husband, who had been ill at the Toscano Hotel for a week, and also to attend a meeting of Druidic Circle, No. 27, U. A. O. D., which she instituted here about two years ago and in which she took a lively interest. She was in the enjoyment of excellent health and up to within a few minutes of her sudden taking off was laughing and conversing with friends in the Toscano Hotel parlor. About four o'clock, however, she suddenly complained of a chilly sensation and was advised to lie down. She then left the parlor and went up stairs to her room and this was the last seen of her alive. Shortly after, Mr. Clark, who had been out for a stroll, returned to the hotel and inquired for his wife, and was told that she had complained of feeling ill and had retired to her room up stairs. Mr. Clark then hastened to the room and attempted to open the door. It was unlocked but some obstruction on the inside held it closed. He then called to his wife and receiving no response he forced the door back and discovered his wife's body lying against it. A glance told him that she was dead and he at once gave the alarm and summoned a physician but upon his arrival it was found that the vital spark had fled.

Mrs. Clark must have expired immediately after entering the room and closing the door, as she had removed her hat from her head while going to her room and this was found beside the body.

The deceased was widely known. She was a prominent Rebekah, Druidess and Eastern Star woman and belonged to many other benevolent societies.

At the time of her death Mr. and Mrs. Clark were arranging to dispose of their affairs in the city and make Sonoma their home. In fact Mr. Clark has already accepted a position in Adler's planing mill here and Mrs. Clark was engaged in winding up their affairs in the city.

The remains of the deceased were shipped to San Francisco Monday for interment in that city, where, strange to relate, she made all arrangements for her funeral a few months ago. She leaves a husband and family of grown children and hosts of friends who were shocked at her sudden ending.

Election Contest Shows a Tie Vote.

The election contest brought in the Superior Court of this county by parties in Petaluma to oust Trustee Brainerd, who was declared elected City Trustee over Harry Dahlmann on the face of the returns, has developed the fact that there is a tie vote, both Brainerd and Dahlmann receiving 487 votes each. It is now to be determined whether a new election will be called or whether Brainerd will continue to act on his certificate of election pending an appeal to the Appelate Court. The recount of the votes cast for Michael Walsh and George Riley for City Trustee shows that Walsh was elected all right, although by a very narrow margin, the vote standing as follows: Walsh, 501; Riley, 485.

COUNTY NEWS ITEMS.

Guy E. Grosse, the well-known real estate man of Santa Rosa, died in that city on Wednesday.

There are ninety-six inmates at the County Hospital and Farm at the present time, so County Physician S. S. Bcgle reported Tuesday.

A. H. Whitney, formerly of Petaluma, was killed in San Mateo last Wednesday by a train running down his automobile. A brother of deceased, also met a violent death fifteen years ago by falling through a skylight.

The Anglo-Californian Bank, through its attorney, J. W. Lilliienthal, commenced a suit in the Superior Court on Tuesday against Edward Walden et al. to recover the sum of $6,240 on a promissory note.

The suit of the Exchange Bank against George Morrison and others has been decided by a jury in favor of the defendants and against the bank. The amount involved was $1500 on notes which defendants claimed were forged by ex-Councilman Veers of Santa Rosa, who is a fugitive from justice.

In the Petaluma election contest proceedings on Thursday morning Judge Seawell dismissed the suit brought by A. W. Horwege against H. P. Brainerd, alleging that Henry Dahlmann had been elected in place of Brainerd. Each party was ordered to pay his own costs. This leaves Mr. Brainerd in office. He is President of the Board of Trustees of the western town.

Suit was brought Wednesday against the Olmsted Company of Petaluma and the Petaluma Gas and Electric Company to recover the sum of $25,250 for the electrecution of Corwin G. Brockway, at the time of his death an employe of the former company. Young Brockway was engaged in operating the Mergenthaler typesetting machine in the office of the Argus a year ago, and in adjusting an electric light received a shock which resulted in his death.

THE DYING FAUNA.

America is nothing if not money making, yet even the Americans, when they found their fauna being destroyed, did not hesitate to spend money freely on what remained. They were too late to save the bison, but what they have done in saving many other wild animals, including the summer duck, in peril of extinction, Yellowstone, the grandest sanctuary in the world, testifies. It is a shame that England should have lagged behind America and Germany, even Norway. A large vote for game preservation in Africa would be popular in the country and in parliament. Somaliland in particular deserves more protection. For many years it has been the unhappy hunting ground of those who care for nothing but trophies, to whom the growing rarity or extinction of a species is a matter of no concern provided they can satisfy their own greed. Swayne's hartebeeste is in actual danger of extinction throughout the protectorate. Clarke's gazelle and the beira are also greatly diminished, thanks to tribesmen with rifles and selfish white hunters. And these animals are not known to exist outside Somaliland. — London Saturday Review.

The Colossus of Telescopes.

A citizen of Los Angeles, Cal., has recently given $45,000 for the construction of a one hundred inch reflecting telescope, to be used by the Carnegie solar observatory on Mount Wilson. The glass disk from which the mirror will be formed has already been ordered at St. Gobain, in France, but it is expected that about four years will be spent in making the disk and afterward grinding and figuring it. Professor George E. Hale, the director of the solar observatory, thinks that no insuperable difficulty is likely to be encountered in the making and mounting of this enormous instrument, which in light gathering power will immensely exceed all other telescopes now in existence. The mirror for the sixty inch reflecting telescope now being constructed for the same observatory is nearly completed.

Spoiled a Sensation.

The recent theft at the Louvre suggested to a Paris reporter a bright idea. He himself cleverly stole a small plaque from the room of African antiquities and two days later presented himself to the director.

"Do you know, monsieur, that you have been robbed again?"

"No!"

"Yes, and the proof is this object. The thief—c'est moi! Clearly, monsieur le directeur, the Louvre is very badly guarded."

But the reporter's triumph was short lived. M. Homolle put him off with the freezing remark, "The treasures placed in museums are confided not alone to the vigilance of the guardians, but to the honor of citizens."

The Mystery of Music.

The marvelous effects that are sometimes produced by music may, states a prominent scientist, eventually receive a scientific explanation. In a recent report Professor McKendrick said that, while the intricate connection of the auditory nerves is only just being unraveled, it is probable that the roots of those nerves are more widely distributed and have more extensive connections than those of any other nerves in the human body. Researches on the auditory nerves indicate that there is scarcely a function of the body that may not be affected by the pulsations and harmonic combinations of musical tones.—New York Herald.

Blotting Stones In Use.

A combination blotting stone and paper weight just placed on the local market is primarily intended as an advertisement for business houses. It is fashioned on the lines of conventional models excepting a detachable metal back, upon which the firm's announcement may be stamped. When the stone becomes discolored by ink absorption, by placing it in a stove or furnace the heat renders it perfectly clean in short order. There is no limit to the number of times the stone can be thus purified; hence it is adaptable to lifelong service.—New York Press.

A Farmer's Hard Work.

Congressman Frank O. Lowden of Illinois put himself down in the congressional directory as a farmer. An eastern colleague asked him how an Illinois farmer spent his time. He replied, "I get up at 8 o'clock, have a light breakfast, smoke a cigar and then until noon read the paper and dictate letters." "That's enough," replied the other representative. "If you know of any more farm jobs of just that sort in Illinois, I would take one."

Lightning In War.

A French scientist has come to the decision that it will soon be possible to destroy armies by lightning. He concludes that the energy of 1,000 horsepower, at 100,000 volts, could be concentrated by antennae so as to destroy life at a distance of twelve miles. The present difficulty, which he believes will soon be overcome, is that of controlling and directing the electric waves.

Galiano's Quinine Hair Tonic.

Joe Galiano, at First Street East, Pinelli building, has introduced into Sonoma a hair tonic, called Quinine Tonic, which is a wonderful remedy for the prevention of baldness. Mr. Galiano has had many years experience under a first-class physician in Europe. A great number of cases of baldness are caused by indigestion, and not as is presumed, by a disease of the scalp. It is not claimed that Quinine Tonic will grow hair on a bald head, as a number of fake tonics are advertised to do, but it is claimed and guaranteed that Quinine Tonic will stop the hair from falling out, and if used twice a week will clear the head from dandruff which will not return as long as the Tonic is used. Quinine Tonic is composed of the five following articles: Pure Alcohol, Quinine, Sulphur, Glycerine and Tumeric. If the Tonic is used and not found as represented, Galiano will refund the money. The Quinine Tonic will also save the trouble of shampooing the hair. This Tonic is for sale at both drug stores in Sonoma.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

Among the troubles that beset mankind rheumatism is one of the most aggravating. "I suffered with it for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months.

For sale by L. S. Simmons.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. During the third of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. For sale by L. S. Simmons.

A Turnip Seed.

The seed of the globe turnip is not larger, perhaps, than the twentieth part of an inch in diameter, yet in the course of a few months this seed will be enlarged by the soil and the air into 27,000,000 times its original bulk, and this in addition to a bunch of leaves. A French scientist found that in an average condition a turnip seed may increase its own weight fifteen times in a minute.

A Beginner.

I think that roller skates are fine;
I'm learning very well.
I have a system of my own—
Why, yes, of course I'll tell.

You see, I tried the left skate first,
For mother thought I might,
And now, since I can skate with it,
I'm learning with the right.

And so I'm sure that by next week—
I hope it's pleasant weather—
I'll take them out and put them on
And skate with both together.

—Pittsburg Press.

Do You Love

your baby? You wonder why he cries. Buy a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and he will never cry. Most babies have worms, and the mothers don't know it. White's Cream Vermifuge rids the child of worms and cleans out its system in a pleasant way. Every mother should keep a bottle of this medicine in the house. With it, fear need never enter her mind. Price 25c.

Sold by Simmon's Pharmacy.

A Case In Point.

Of Sergeant Arabin, who had not a clear method of speech, it is related that he said to one criminal, "Prisoner at the bar, if ever there was a clearer case than this of a man robbing his master, this case is that case." At another time he said, "Prisoner at the bar, you have been found guilty on several indictments, and it is in my power to subject you to transportation for a period very considerably beyond the term of your natural life, but the court in its mercy will not go so far as it lawfully might go, and the sentence is that you be transported for two periods of seven years each."—London Globe.

Real Distress of Mind.

Dora—I'm in such distress of mind, and I want your advice. I am loved by three men, and I don't know which to accept. Clara—Which one has the most money? Dora—If I knew that, do you suppose I'd waste precious time running around for advice?

Stop Grumbling

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by L. S. Simmons.

$8.50 PUNCTURE-PROOF TIRES ONLY $4.80 PER PAIR

Regular Price $8.50 per pair. To Introduce We Will Sell You a Sample Pair for Only $4.80 (CASH WITH ORDER $4.50)

NO MORE TROUBLE FROM PUNCTURES.

Result of 15 years experience in tire making. No danger from THORNS, CACTUS, PINS, NAILS, TACKS or GLASS. Serious punctures, like intentional knife cuts, can be vulcanized like any other tire.

Two Hundred Thousand pairs now in actual use. Over Seventy-five Thousand pairs sold last year.

Notice the thick rubber tread "A" and puncture strips "B" and "D," also rim strip "H" to prevent rim cutting. This tire will outlast any other make—SOFT, ELASTIC and EASY RIDING.

DESCRIPTION: Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of thin, specially prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation commonly felt when riding on asphalt or soft roads is overcome by the patent "Basket Weave" tread which prevents all air from being squeezed out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all suction. The regular price of these tires is $8.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C.O.D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented.

We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $4.55 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump and two Sampson metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Tires to be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination.

We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is as safe as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Banker, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.

COASTER-BRAKES, built-up wheels, saddles, pedals, parts and repairs, and everything in the bicycle line are sold by us at half the usual prices charged by dealers and repair men. Write for our big SUNDRY catalogue.

DO NOT WAIT but write us a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a bicycle or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write it NOW.
